

The Gateway

FLASH BULLETIN

Vol. XXXIV

UNIVERSITY OF OMAHA

November 24, 1954

THANKSGIVING CONVO TODAY

Evidence of historical continuity and still-persistent problems will be heard by students at the 9:30 a.m. Thanksgiving convocation today in the auditorium.

The Rev. William H. Cowger, Episcopalian rector and University student, will present the invocation.

University professors will read three Thanksgiving proclamations. The 1863 Proclamation of President Abraham Lincoln, which set the tradition of the Thanksgiving date as the fourth Thursday in November, will be read by Dr. J. D. Tyson, speech instructor.

A proclamation famous for its literary quality will be read by Alfred Sugarman, speech instructor. It is the 1938 Proclamation of Governor Wilber Grosse of Connecticut.

The 1954 Proclamation of President Eisenhower will be presented by Dr. Edwin L. Clark, head of the dramatics department.

The 40-voice University Choir will present seven selections. The assembly will be dismissed as the choir sings the Westminster Benediction.

Morning classes will follow the usual shortened schedule.

SPECIAL ELECTION

Polls will be open from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. today in the Student Lounge for the special election. A junior secretary-treasurer and a junior woman Student Council representative will be elected.

The election of Nov. 3 was contested for use of illegal campaign literature.

TANGERINE BOWL SPECIAL

Students slowly are beginning to make plans to attend the Tangerine Bowl game in Orlando, Florida, New Year's night.

Dean of Students Jay B. MacGregor reports that already 44 students have signed up for free room and board offered by Rollins College at Winter Park, Fla.

Because of the friendliness of Omahans during the NCAA meet here last summer, the college is offering the free room and board to the first 100 student applicants.

Special prices for transportation have been offered by Greyhound and Burlington.

Chartered Greyhound buses cost between $43 and $45 round trip. Buses would leave Dec. 28 and return Jan. 4. Sixteen students had made reservations yesterday morning.

Special student price by rail is between $61 and $68 round trip. The lower price will be charged only if 75 or more agree to go by train. Only nine had registered by Tuesday morning. The train will leave Dec. 28 and return Jan. 4.

Dean MacGregor said fare for either bus or train must be paid by Dec. 15. Reservations may be made in the Dean's office.

Tangerine Bowl tickets are available in the Business Office and the Athletic Business Office.

Tickets range in price from $4.75, between the 40 yard lines; $3, 25 to 40 yard lines; $2, goals to 25 yard lines; and $1.50, end bleachers. Harvey Vogler, Athletics Business Manager, said tickets will be sold only at the University.